Notes by the Way.

Lieut. A. H. Stewart, Hongkong Volunteer Corps, has got six months' leave of absence.

Mr H. Trocky's residence, No. 107 Bluff, Yokohama, was burnt down on the 12th inst.

The treaty of commerce between Belgium and Korea was ratified on the 12th inst.

As a result of the Consular action, the lotteries are to be prohibited in the Foreign Settlements at Shanghai.

The report of the Acting Principal Civil Medical Officer Dr Ball, for 1900 is published in the Gazette.

His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to recognise D. J. M. de Zuñiga as Honorary Consul for Spain.

A telegram to the Meiji-za says that Li Hung-chang is the only high official who supports the Manchurian Convention.

The Government seeks Information.

On the 27th February, the Government wrote to the General Committee of the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce, forwarding copy of a letter from the Standard Oil Company of New York, and inquiring whether, in the opinion of the Committee, the trade in naphtha and gasoline was likely to assume any large proportions in the Colony. On the 11th March, the Committee sagely replied to this naive query to the effect that, while at the outset the trade would be small it might eventually attain to considerable proportions.

Domestic Servant Registration.

At the meeting of the new Committee of the Hongkong Chamber of Commerce on the 19th inst., it was stated that in accordance with the decision come to at the last meeting, a letter was despatched to the Government on the subject of the registration of domestic servants, in reply to a request to the Chamber for their opinion, to the effect that the Committee considered that the enactment of such a law would be inadvisable and probably impracticable. The Chairman said he thought that closed the matter so far as the Committee were concerned.

Too Busy!

Some time ago, it will be remembered by those who take an interest in the development of trade with China, we published a communication from Mr H. Kopsch on the transit of produce in China.

The communication was brought to the notice of the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce, and considered by its Committee on the 19th inst. In this letter, Mr Kopsch urged that the Treaty Powers should insist on the Chinese Government accepting and adopting the Chinkiang outward transit regulations at all Treaty Ports, &c. The Chairman said this was a large question, and would require more consideration than they had been able to give to it, and he thought it would have to be taken in connection with a large question of Tariff Revision. The Committee heartily concurred in these remarks. At the same meeting, the Chairman said the Secretary had, owing to pressure of work, been unable to draft a letter to the British Minister at Peking to give the views of the Chamber on this subject as requested. He thought this matter would entail a good deal of enquiry and consideration, and from the present aspect of affairs up North he was afraid the opportunity for the settlement of the Tariff and kindred questions was still distant.

Hongkong Police.

The report of the Captain-Superintendent of Police for the year 1900, published in the Hongkong Government Gazette of the 9th inst., is interesting reading, says the N.C. Daily News.

The force consists of 960 men, namely 174 Europeans, 512 Indians, and 223 Chinese; these figures including Police paid for by other departments and private firms, and also the engineers, coxswains, and steers. The discipline of the force may be judged by the number of reports against the men during the year. Against 174 Europeans, 126 reports were made; against 512 Indians, 335 reports were made; and against 223 Chinese, 930 reports were made. After seeing these figures it rather surprises the ordinary reader to learn that the Captain-Superintendent reports that the conduct of the contingent was on the whole good; of the Chinese contingent, that it was on the whole satisfactory; but one can quite easily understand that he considers the conduct of the Indian contingent was far from satisfactory. We note that no arrest was made in three out of four cases of murder. Virtue and goodness are, after all, merely a question of comparison. That the Captain-Superintendent should pronounced as he does ill for the local standard by which the police are judged.

Small-pox.

There were seven fresh cases of small-pox in the Colony during the week ended 23rd March. The deaths numbered six, bringing the total up to twenty-one since the beginning of the year. During the past 24 hours one fresh case was reported.

Proud father: 'You have no idea what I am in that boy of ours!'—Friend: 'You forget, old man, that he came to our place to see yesterday.'

THE MASTER CHRISTIAN.

(A Soliloquy.)

The Lieutenant turned from his reading, crying: "This book is a bore. With its numberless callous worldlings, and cynical sinners galore; Why does she rant at the clergy? Why does she censure them all, Deeming none fit for his office, each unprepared for his 'call'?"

List to him, Mario Corolini. Hark, for his opinion is wise!—

What was so wildly hysterical? Think you the padres will "rise"?

Little they heed of your ravings, little they care for your blunder.

The good will be good and the bad ones, ever and over the same.

Why spatter mud on the broadcloth? Granted, there are those who seek God's truth of the world in abundance, only of which should you speak.

Man is not cut out of carbboard, patterned to fit in his trade.

Marvel you then that a scoundrel, sometimes a parson is made!

Fills it your spirit with wonder, if sometimes the cleric is saint, Exhibits bountiful robes, polish, the traces of white wash and pale?

Is there a critic of your fancies? Is there a flock that can keep Each of its members untaunted, ever avoid the black sheep?

The Lieutenant yawned, as he murmured, "Mario Corolini, you're wrong; Man may be bad, but I fancy, you paint it a trifl too sitton."

There goes a person marked "villain"— here are a pair of black sheep;

Why there goes a flock of all colours!—a snore, he had fallen asleep.

DOLLY.

MONGHURIAN CONVENTION.

Copy of the Draft.

The Peking correspondent of the N. C. Daily News sends the following translation of this much-discussed convention:

1.—The Emperor of Russia, being desirous to manifest friendly feelings, agrees to completely restore Manchuria to China without keeping in mind the fact of the recent warfare in the province, and Chinese administration shall be restored in all respects to the status quo ante.

2.—China granted the railroad company, as stipulated in the sixth article of the China Relaxed Concession, the right of guarding the line with troops, but the country being still in disorder and the number of such troops being insufficient, it is necessary to station a body of troops in the province, which, however, will be withdrawn as soon as peace and order have been restored, and the provisions of the present convention shall have been carried out.

3.—In case of emergency the Russian troops stationed in the provinces shall render all possible assistance to China to suppress disturbances.

4.—The recent attacks against Russia having been conducted principally by irregular troops, China agrees to organize any army before completion of the railway and opening for traffic. When China shall successfully organize military forces their number shall be fixed in consultation with Russia.

The importation of arms and ammunition into Manchuria is prohibited.

5.—In order to safeguard the province China should immediately dismiss such Governors-General or high local officials as shall have committed improper acts in connection with foreign relations and against which Russia shall have protested.

6.—China should not, as previously agreed, employ subjects of any other Power in training naval and military forces in the northern provinces.

7.—In order to maintain peace and order, the local authorities residing in the vicinity of the neutral zones provided for in the fifth article of the convention relative to the lease of territory in Liastung, should establish such special regulations as would be suitable to the circumstances, and relinquish the administrative autonomy of Chinchou, which was renounced by China in the fourth article of the special convention.

8.—China should act grant, without consent of Russia, to any other Power in its subjects any advantages relating to mines, railways, telegraphs, etc., in Manchuria, Mongolia, and Kashgar, Yarkand, Khotan, and in Turkestan. Neither shall the construct or own railways in these provinces without the consent of Russia. Leases of territory outside of Nenewhang shall not be granted to the subjects of any other Power.

9.—China being under obligation to pay the war expenses of Russia, and claims of various other Powers, the amount of the Russian indemnities, the terms of payment and the security therefor, shall be adjusted conjointly with the other Powers.

10.—Indemnities to be paid as compensation for the destruction of the railway and the property of the employees of the company, and for the damage resulting from acts of war, shall be adjusted by both China and the railway company.

11.—When the indemnities for various damages shall have been agreed upon between China and the railway company, the whole or a part of the amount of such indemnities shall be met with advantages other than pecuniary compensation, that is to say, either revision of the existing agreement relating to the railway or grant of new advantages.

12.—China shall, as previously agreed, grant to Russia a concession for construction of a railway from the main or branch line of the Manchurian Railway towards Peking and to the Great Wall.

HONGKONG VOLUNTEER CORPS.

THE ANNUAL INSPECTION.

The members of the Hongkong Volunteer Corps paraded on Saturday afternoon when the annual inspection by His Excellency Major-General Gascoigne, C.M.G., took place at Causeway Bay. The men assembled at Headquarters at half-past two o'clock, and notwithstanding the very un-promising state of the weather, the attendance, was larger than in former years, giving a simple testimony to the enthusiasm which pervades the Corps. The men who marched down Murray Road and along Queen's Road and Praya East to Causeway Bay, headed by the fifes band and the colour. On reaching the inspection ground the Infantry section received a large addition to its numbers by the inclusion of the "Takao" contingent. Late comers also fell in, and the numbers which attended for inspection were as follows:—

17 officers, 270 non-commissioned officers and men, 8 unenrolled drummers, total 300. The men were all well turned up in uniform, and inspected by Mr. E. Marshall, who was accompanied by his staff. Each company, in fact
